

SPEAKER PROFILE

The whole group enjoyed her engaging presentation on career aspirations and imposter syndrome. There was much lively discussion facilitated by Sherry's highly approachable and warm personal style.

Rebecca Bennett, Deloitte UK

Perfect for:

Women-only audiences; mixed audiences, women in technology, working parents, City workers, middle-senior managers, CIOs and CEOs

Book Sherry:

As a speaker or compere (MC) for Breakfast Meetings, In-house Lunch & Learn, 60-90 minute Keynote, Workshops, Network Meetings, Q&A Panels, External Conferences, Off-site Retreats etc

ABOUT SHERRY

AUTHOR • COACH • SPEAKER

Sherry runs The Confident Mother, an independent consultancy. She specialises in helping ambitious women in technology get crystal clear in their thinking so they have the confidence to take action to get promoted and fully unlock their leadership potential

A former Arthur Andersen employee and Global Head of IT Service for a leading City law firm with over 20 years of leadership experience, Sherry partners with technology companies to develop their female talent and close the gender pay gap, through workshops, leadership programmes and 1:1 coaching.

SHERRY'S SIGNATURE KEYNOTE

HOW TO MANAGE YOUR CAREER WITH CONFIDENCE AND PURPOSE

In an uncertain world, it's not enough to work hard to get the career success you deserve. You need to proactively manage your career with confidence and purpose.

This talk explores:

- How to identify your core skills and strengths so that you can articulate these more effectively
- How to make a commitment to you and your career without getting in your own way
- How to create a supportive career network that will hold you accountable

For bookings email: speaking@sherrybevan.co.uk